§4.

Lucky to have a cat

It was a dark rainy night. I ~~came home from work, took a shower and had dinner.~~ That time I worked as a nurse. I used to come home pretty late, being very tired. In addition, the hospital, where I used to work, was far from my house, ~~so~~ ^{and} I had a long way to go. So that night I felt really exhausted and was happy to return to my nice cozy flat.

I ~~took a shower and~~ decided to have a cup of ~~coffee.~~ ^{tea}
While waiting for ~~coffee~~ ^{the} ~~to be made~~ ^{water} ~~at the kitchen table~~ ^{boiled}
I was trying to read a book. The book was very interesting, but I was so tired, that my eyes were closing by themselves. ~~and I couldn't stop yawning.~~ Eventually, the book was dropped and I fell asleep right ^{in some minutes} on the table. ~~I~~ ^I woke up, drank my tea and went to bed.

Suddenly the door opened. My cat Lisa entered the ~~kitchen~~ ^{bedroom} and started meowing loudly. I ~~immediately~~ ~~immediately~~ woke up.

 My red cat seemed to be mad!
 I tried to calm her down. It was almost 3 ~~pm~~ am and I wanted to sleep. But Liza continued crying.
 "What has happend to you? You have always been very quiet and calm", I said to Liza.

Meowing louder and louder, ~~my~~ the cat ran to the kitchen. I followed her. When I went into the kitchen,
 I saw ~~+~~ that the gas was turned on!

I couldn't believe that something like that could happen.
~~I turned~~ Having turned the gas off, I hugged my dear cat.
 Liza saved my life!
