N2. It is often said that the Internet is a great source of searching information about everyone. "Should you believe everything you see online?" by Merryweather <sup>prevents</sup> ~~sees~~ this common prejudice from another perspective. The author claims untrue information on the Internet may also confuse and mislead. I believe the author's opinion makes sense.

Developing <sup>the</sup> idea from this text, ~~I think~~ children usually use their nicknames instead of real names, try to find as many friends as possible and lie about their location and income. As a result, active and popular person on social networks may be an introvert <sup>or even shy</sup> in the real life. ~~This leads to different diseases~~ health problems which is dangerous.

Celebrities also suffer from rumors and untrue information on the Internet. Unfortunately many people, even their fans may have wrong opinion about ~~the~~ their celebrity's lifestyle, relatives and tastes. This can lead to misunderstanding and hatred.

To conclude, the Internet is a complicated system. While it seems to be a useful source to find information, it can also lead to negative consequences. ~~Unknown people~~

~~Talent week~~ ~~Hard work + Abilities = Success~~

School is a box of talents: Students' and teachers' ones

- Alice Grishina
- Moscow, Russia

This magazine's weekly column is dedicated to the recent school talent week. All students and teachers took part in this event to make it especially memorable.

The most interesting and exhilarating event was doubtlessly a marathon. <sup>on May 22, 18</sup> to everyone's surprise, there were more than 100 participants and everyone had to run 25 km. It was absolutely unpredictable that Ivan Petrovich, our biology teacher, would win this competition. "I am really happy and hope next year some of my students will overcome me", the winner says.

On the next day there was a music <sup>(concert)</sup> Participants' skills and completely overwhelmed the audience. Ivan Bukin became a winner ~~and~~ as his music was so atmospheric and wonderful that no one wanted him to stop.

On Friday all students got a video on their smartphones. This video told everyone about ~~his~~ their teachers' hobbies. Younger pupils were <sup>completely</sup> taken aback ~~or~~ while older ones tried to hide their surprise. The most unpredictable and memorable ~~was hobby~~ ~~was~~ <sup>is</sup> ~~his~~ <sup>our</sup> ~~our~~ director, Pavel Vladimirovich's <sup>only</sup> ~~he~~ grows strawberries, and even imports them to different countries. Pavel Vladimirovich commented this situation: "I wanted to tell students that they ~~can~~ do ~~to~~ ~~can~~ plant their future. ~~have even strange hobbies~~ ~~or~~ That's why don't be ashamed of your talents".

All in all, we hope students will remember this week for a long time. Although some of them will ~~already~~ graduate <sup>this</sup> year, memories of their friends <sup>and</sup> their talents, ~~hobbies~~ <sup>and</sup> achievements will always be with them.

Why else should you not trust you see online?

It is often said that the Internet and social networks are great sources of information about the one. However, "Should you believe everything you see online?" by Merryweather <sup>sees the</sup> claims that information about the age, friends and <sup>from another perspective</sup> relatives on the Internet may ~~at~~ mislead and confuse. I believe that the 52 <sup>author's opinion</sup> makes sense.

In my opinion, <sup>common practice</sup> children usually <sup>60</sup> change their real names to nicknames <sup>35</sup> find as many friends as possible and lie about <sup>35</sup> their locations and money. This leads to their inactive <sup>particular</sup> ~~ness~~ in real life. As a result, active and <sup>particular</sup> person in social networks may be introvert in the real life. Celebrities are people who always find some untrue information about themselves. Unfortunately
